

Interview Questions for Dr. Dorothy Kelley Patterson & Dr. Rhonda Harrington Kelley

“The most comprehensive study Bible prepared for women by women who all are academically trained in the biblical languages and who are passionate about God’s Word.”

- What is the value of having a study Bible for women that has been written by women?
- What hinders someone from being able to receive clear understanding of Scripture?
- How has your personal study time developed over the years, and what have you found to be the most effective way to hear the voice of God in pages of the Bible?
- What makes this CSB translation different from others?
- What are your favorite study features in this Bible?
- How does the language of a woman speak more effectively to another woman?
- How did you incorporate the concept of mentoring into your study Bible?
- What are some of the most overlooked concepts of biblical womanhood?
- Each book of the Bible opens with a reason why women should read it. Do you have a favorite reason for studying a particular book of the Bible?
- How would you encourage someone to begin a personal study of the Bible?

Guests: General Editor: Dorothy Kelley Patterson
Managing Editor: Rhonda Harrington Kelley

Book title: The CSB Study Bible for Women

Publisher: B&H Publishing Group

Available: April 15, 2018, in bookstores everywhere

For more information on Patterson & Kelley, please contact Jana Muntsinger, MMPR, 832-247-9308 or jana@mmpublicrelations.com