

Interview Questions for Max Lucado
Author of Unshakable Hope: Building Our Lives on the Promises of God

We are building our lives on the promises of God.
Because his Word is unbreakable, our hope is unshakable.
We do not stand on the problems of life or the pain in life.
We stand on the great and precious promises of God.
-Max Lucado

- Why did you write Unshakable Hope?
- Tell me about a recent time you felt a bit shaky in your hope.
- Why is it important to remember we are made in God's image?
- How does being made in the image of God affect our self-worth?
- According to a recent Barna survey, most Christians do not believe in Satan. Why is belief in Satan even necessary?
- Why should Christians be concerned with their spiritual inheritance?
- What part does prayer play in a life of unshakable hope?
- Max, you write, "God resists the proud because the proud resist God." Can you explain what you mean by that?
- Why is it important to have a God who "gets" us?
- You mention in Unshakable Hope that you have a wish for your tombstone. What is it?
- What is the role of sorrow in the life of a believer? How can the empty tomb be solace in a season of sorrow?
- How can remembering the promise of the Holy Spirit impact our relationships with others?
- Tell us about a time you longed for justice. How is God's justice different than ours?
- Why is it important for an entire church to know the promises of God?

Guest: Max Lucado, author, pastor, www.MaxLucado.com

Book title: Unshakable Hope: Building Our Lives on the Promises of God (Hardcover, $22.99)

Publisher: Thomas Nelson

Available: August 2017, in bookstores everywhere

March 2018